Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Joe:

I understand that Mr. Herbert D. Nice, your Chief Intelligence Officer, is being promoted and transferred to San Francisco as your District Director.

We are all pleased to learn of Mr. Nice's promotion, but I know that the officers of this Agency who have worked with him since 1933 on mutual problems will miss him greatly. I would like to express our sincere appreciation for the splendid cooperation Mr. Nice has given at all times to members of this Agency. His ready and willing assistance with our problems, coming within the purview of your Service, has been invaluable to us.

We wish Mr. Nice every success in his new assignment.

Sincerely,

SIGNED
